My Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Jai Mohyal

I hope all my Mohyal brothers and sisters are in good health and enjoying the festival season to the fullest. As we celebrate the auspicious festival of Diwali, I extend my warmest wishes to all my Mohyal brothers and sisters and their families. May the festival of lights bring happiness, peace, prosperity and good health into every home. May the festival of Diwali continue to guide us towards unity, compassion and service to our Community, inspiring us to work together for a brighter future.

The prestigious Second Rzd B D Bali Memorial Cricket Tournament held from 2 Oct 2026 to 4 Oct 2026 at Faridabad, was a tremendous success, and it was heartening to witness the enthusiasm, camaraderie and sporting spirit of our Mohyal youth. The tournament was exceptionally well organised, with excellent arrangements for the matches, accommodation and the overall comfort of the participating teams. The cricket ground and pitch were meticulously maintained, reflecting the dedication and attention to detail of the organisers.

My heartfelt gratitude to Mohyal Sabha Faridabad for hosting this wonderful event and ensuring its smooth and successful execution. I extend my special thanks to Shri Ramesh Datta, President MS Faridabad, his wife Smt Suman Datta, his son Shri Dhruv Datta and the entire organising team for their tireless efforts, warm hospitality and commitment to making the tournament memorable for everyone.

Adding to the celebrations, Mohyal Sabha Faridabad emerged victorious on its home ground, winning the prestigious Second Rzd B D Bali Memorial Cricket Tournament for the second time and securing a consecutive victory this season. Heartiest congratulations to the winning team and everyone who contributed to this remarkable achievement.

This Trophy is much more than a cricket tournament. It is a platform that brings our youth together, nurtures friendships, encourages discipline and teamwork.

Annual General Body Meeting (AGM) of the General Mohyal Sabha will be held on 15th November 2026 at A-2 Qutab Institutional Area, New Delhi, building next to Mohyal Foundation. The AGM provides an important platform for discussion, review, and planning for the future of our Community. I encourage all members to participate actively.

As the diyas of Diwali illuminate our homes, may they also illuminate our collective path with hope, unity and renewed determination. Wishing all my Mohyal brothers, sisters and their families a very Happy Diwali.

Wishing good health and happiness to each one of you .

Yours affectionately,

Vinod Kumar Dutt
President GMS

Five Years of Service – A Journey of Collective Achievement

As I complete five years as President of the General Mohyal Sabha along with my team at GMS, I find myself reflecting on this journey with immense gratitude and humility. The love, affection, trust and respect that our community has showered upon me and my team have been our greatest source of encouragement. I sincerely thank all my colleagues, office bearers, members, volunteers, donors and every member of the Mohyal community for standing by us and supporting our collective endeavours. Whatever we have achieved would not have been possible without your support.

When my team and I assumed this responsibility, our Community was emerging from the difficult period of the COVID-19 pandemic. Many of our Mohyal Ashrams were in a poor state of maintenance, and substantial work had accumulated over the years. We recognised that restoring these Institutions and strengthening our community's welfare activities had to be among our foremost priorities.

With the collective efforts of our team, extensive renovation and maintenance work was undertaken across all our Ashrams at different locations. Both our school buildings also underwent renovation, helping improve the facilities and the environment in which our children learn. Several pending works from the tenure of our respected former President, late Rzd. B.D. Bali, were also taken up on priority and completed. Among these significant accomplishments were the completion of the Mohyal Ashram building at Yamuna Nagar and the completion of the third floor of Mohyal Ashram, Haridwar. These projects were important milestones in strengthening our Community infrastructure and ensuring that our Ashrams could better serve the needs of our members.

However, the most heartening aspect of this entire exercise was not merely the physical transformation of our buildings. It was the extraordinary generosity and commitment, demonstrated by our community members. These improvements were made possible to a great extent through donations from Mohyals who came forward wholeheartedly to support the cause. Their contributions reaffirmed my belief that the greatest strength of our community lies in its people. Whenever we unite for a common purpose, even the most challenging tasks become achievable.

Education and Welfare – Caring for Those Who Need Us Most

One of our deepest convictions has always been that no Mohyal child should be deprived of education because of financial constraints. With this vision in mind, we doubled the educational grant, increasing the support available to deserving children. Every child who receives educational grant represents a step towards a more secure and empowered future for our Community.

Equally important has been our responsibility towards our elderly members, widows and families in need. The monthly financial grant extended to underprivileged members and widows, was increased from Rs 1,000/- to Rs 2,000/-. This enhancement was a small but meaningful effort to provide greater support and dignity to them.

We also turned our attention to the people who work tirelessly behind the scenes to keep our Institutions functioning. Underpaid staff members in our Ashrams and offices were given promotions and appropriate remuneration. We believe that recognising their dedication and improving their working conditions are essential to building a motivated, efficient and committed workforce.

Financial Strength and Responsible Management

Sound financial management has been another important focus throughout these five years. The deposits of GMS stood at Rs 8.63 crore when we assumed office. Through careful financial management, collective support and a sustained focus on responsible administration, this amount has now grown to Rs 11.75 crore.

This growth is not simply a financial milestone; it reflects our commitment to preserving the resources entrusted to us and strengthening the Sabha's ability to serve the Community in the long run. Our objective has always been to ensure that our Institutions remain financially sound and capable of meeting the educational, social and welfare needs of future generations.

Bringing Our Youth Together and Celebrating Talent

The future of the Mohyal community rests in the hands of our younger generation. We have therefore made conscious efforts to bring our youth closer to one another and to the community through youth camps, sports championships and music competitions.

These initiatives have provided young Mohyals with opportunities to discover their talents, develop confidence, form lasting friendships and appreciate their shared heritage. The Pratibhashalee Mohyal Vidyarthi Samman has further strengthened this effort by recognising and honouring talented children and young achievers for their accomplishments in different fields.

It is deeply satisfying to see our young members participate with such enthusiasm. Their energy, ideas and aspirations are invaluable, and we must continue creating platforms where they feel connected, appreciated and encouraged to contribute to the Community.

Matrimonial Initiatives – Building Bonds for the Next Generation

Marriage and family have always held a special place in our Community. To help eligible young Mohyals find suitable life partners, matrimonial functions were organised at different locations, bringing families together and creating opportunities for meaningful introductions.

This time, we also took an important step towards making the process more engaging by encouraging the youth to participate, rather than limiting the interaction to parents and family members. We believe that allowing young people to interact and express their preferences is a progressive approach that can help them make informed decisions about their futures. The encouraging response to these initiatives reinforces our resolve to continue facilitating meaningful matrimonial connections across the community.

Strengthening Our Local Mohyal Sabhas – Building Unity Through Dialogue

Throughout these five years, we also made a conscious effort to strengthen our relationship with local Mohyal Sabhas across the country. We organised multiple meetings with the Presidents and Secretaries of various local Sabhas, along with their spouses, to encourage greater interaction, mutual understanding and closer coordination within our community.

These meetings provided a valuable platform to build personal relationships, exchange ideas and bring everyone onto the same page regarding our collective vision and objectives. They also enabled us to listen more closely to the feedback, suggestions and concerns of our local Sabhas, understand the challenges they faced and discuss practical solutions. The interactions helped foster a stronger sense of participation and partnership, reinforcing our belief that the progress of the General Mohyal Sabha is closely linked to the strength and active involvement of every local Sabha. By maintaining an open dialogue and working together, we ensured that the concerns of our members are heard and that our collective efforts remain aligned with the needs and aspirations of the entire Mohyal Community.

Looking Ahead with Gratitude and Hope

As I look back on these five years, I recognise that every achievement has been the result of collective effort. The support of my colleagues, the dedication of our office bearers and volunteers, the generosity of our donors, and the trust of our members have made this journey meaningful.

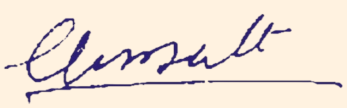

There is, of course, always more to be done. Our Institutions need continued attention, our educational and welfare initiatives must keep growing, and our youth must remain at the centre of our plans for the future. The progress we have made should inspire us to aim even higher.

I am particularly grateful to every Mohyal brother and sister who has contributed in any way, whether through financial support, selfless service, advice, encouragement or simply by placing their trust in our work. Each contribution matters, and each individual has a role to play in shaping the future of our Community.

Let us continue to preserve our rich heritage while embracing positive change, supporting one another and building a community in which every child is educated, every deserving member is cared for, our youth are empowered, and our Institutions grow stronger with every passing year.

Wishing all my Mohyal brothers and sisters a wonderful life ahead, filled with happiness, good health, prosperity and togetherness.

With gratitude,

Vinod Kumar Dutt

Memories of Two Sisters

Silent Living Witnesses of the Partition of 1947 – Smt Satyawanti Dutta and Smt Swarn Kanta Chhibber, Subhash Nagar, Jammu

Some events are recorded in history books, some in government documents, and some are written not on paper but in the human heart. The Partition of India in 1947 was one such event. It was not merely a border drawn on a map. It was a line drawn through the lives of millions of people—separating them from their homes, their native lands, and their loved ones, tearing families apart, and robbing countless children of the innocence of childhood.

There was a significant age difference between the two sisters. The elder sister, Satyawanti Dutta, was a young married woman who was beginning to understand the responsibilities of adult life. The younger sister, Swarn Kanta Chhibber, was only about six years old. For her, the world was still limited to her family, her home, the courtyard, and the people she loved. Satyawanti experienced that period as an elder sister, a wife, and a member of a family. For her, fear was accompanied by responsibility—the constant concern for the safety and identity of herself and her loved ones. Swarn Kanta experienced those events through the eyes of a small child. She could not fully understand what was happening around her.

Today, when the two sisters recall those days, their memories give a human face to a chapter of history that cannot be understood through statistics and dates alone. My name is Satyawanti Dutta, and my younger sister's name is Swarn Kanta Chhibber. I was born in January 1929. I got married in 1947 to Shri Harbans Lal Dutta and was living with my family comprising my parents and my three brothers namely late Shri Om Parkash Bali, late Shri Manohar Lal Bali and late Shri Bansi Lal Bali in the village of Kotli Kaini. At that time, the area was part of undivided India. My younger sister, Swarn Kanta, was about six years old at that time.

Anxiety appeared on people's faces. Fear entered their conversations. People began to worry about what the future might hold. Considering the circumstances, our family decided to go to Mirpur for our safety. At that time, we believed that perhaps the situation would improve after some time and we would be able to return. Soon thereafter, a violent mob forcibly broke down the door and entered our house. They took our father away with them. One of the members of the mob we saw wearing our father clothes. From that day onwards, we never saw our father again and had no information about his whereabouts till date.

Where once the four walls of a house had provided protection, we were now standing helpless in an open field. That night, the elders of the family were frightened, even as they tried to protect the children. We were imprisoned in a gurdwara, where men and women were separated. At that time, being separated from one's family was perhaps an even greater fear than anything else. At the same time, I faced circumstances in which protecting my identity and honour had become a matter of life and death. It is a strange irony of history that sometimes a person keeps moving forward not because life is easy, but simply because there is no other choice. I kept walking along with family members except my father who was taken away by the mob and little Swarn Kanta remained part of that terrible journey.

The time of Partition was not only a time of fear. It was also a time of constant separation and reunion. Every separation felt as though someone close to us had been lost forever. And whenever a familiar face appeared, it felt as though someone had suddenly lit a lamp in the darkness. With the help of a school principal, we were able to meet our brother, who was a teacher. Eventually, we reached the banks of the Jhelum River. After a long journey filled with struggle, fear, separation, and uncertainty, our journey finally brought us by train to Attari (Punjab).From Attari, we travelled to Kurukshetra, then to Nagrota and thereafter to Jhullaka Mohalla. Eventually, we settled in Rehari Colony, where we began rebuilding our lives. And, most importantly, we had the will to survive. Slowly, we began to rebuild our lives. Eventually, our family settled in Jammu. Our children, and later our grandchildren and the generations that followed, built their own lives.

Satyawanti Dutta and Swarn Kanta Chhibber—experienced and remembered that period in our own ways. Understand that in any conflict, it is often the common person who suffers the most—the person who simply wants to live peacefully with their family. And they should also learn that life can continue even after the most difficult circumstances. Our story is not the story of one family alone. It is a small voice within the story of millions of people who lived through 1947. It is the testimony of a generation that lost so much, yet still chose life.

(Shri R.K Chhibber, son of Smt Swarn Kanta Chhibber and late Sh B N Chhibber, Advisor, POJK Visthapit Sewa Samiti Karyabarini (J&K), Shri Arun Dutta, son of Smt Satyawanti Dutta and late Sh Harbans Lal Datta).

Vanishing Family Bonds

There was a time when our homes were full of life. Cousins were like brothers and sisters. Siblings stood shoulder to shoulder. Neighbors were like family. Sundays meant visiting, not rushing. Weddings, funerals, whatever the reason we showed up. No invite needed, no hesitation. But somewhere along the way, something slipped through our fingers. Even siblings who grew up under the same roof, ate from the same pots laughed in the same cramped rooms, now barely speak.

After our parents pass on, without Mama and Papa holding us together, the gaps widen. Cousins who once shared school holidays now feel like strangers. Our children, who should have been playmates and confidants, barely know one another beyond a polite greeting, if they need at all.

What happened to us? Somewhere between dreams of a better life and life's pressure we lost something vital. We chased education, careers, postcodes, financial freedom, things our parents fought for us to have. But in that chase, relationships got sidelined. Family time became "when I have a chance". Friendships became "when it's convenient". The gathering shrank, then faded, then stopped.

Materialism crept in quietly. Now it's about who owns the bigger house, whose kids go to private school, who's traveling overseas. Conversations once more now feel like subtle competitions and vulnerability, saying I'm struggling when I miss someone feels taboo. We protect our images instead of sharing our truth. We hide pain behind shiny posts and proud updates, afraid that honesty invites judgment, not support. Social media hasn't helped, we scroll past each other's lives, click like, move on. It's easier to post a perfect photo than to say I miss you or I'm not okay.

When our elders pass and no one arranged the gatherings, we realize painfully, without them, we don't know how to hold each other. We let small grudges grow into silence, let pride and fear take over. We stop reaching out, and like anything untended, love withers. But it's not too late. We can rebuild what we lost if we choose to. We can call siblings, even after years invite cousins, even if it's awkward, show our children that family is more than a word.

The Darkest Day of My Life
24 Sept 1947 is a day I can never forget

I was only ten years old when our train, carrying nearly 3,000 Hindus fleeing the violence of Partition and travelling towards India, was attacked at Kaamuki Railway Station, between Gujranwala and Lahore. The attackers entered the train and began killing and looting innocent passengers. Nearly 2,500 people were killed, including eleven members of my own family. I survived by hiding beneath the lifeless body of my uncle. As a frightened ten-year-old child, I lay there silently, praying that I would not be discovered. Around me were the cries of people who had lost their lives and their loved ones.

One memory remains especially painful. My nearly 90-year-old grandmother, moments before she was killed, cried out to her attackers. "Tumhare paas kuch nahin rahega, sab bhooke maroge – why are you killing us?"

We lost our home, our possessions and many of our loved ones. We left everything behind, but we carried something far more precious with us to India—our faith, our culture and our dharma. Nearly eight decades have passed, but the memories of that day remain alive in me. Partition was not simply an event in history for those of us who lived through it. It was a personal tragedy that changed our lives forever.

In this regard, he urged members to give suggestions for encouraging full participation in the Sabha activities. Following four suggestions were offered by the members present.

1. In the current festival season, the Sabha should hold a Dewali Milan programme.
2. We should organize a New Year gathering to welcome the Year 2027.
3. We should hold annual Mela to renew contacts, encourage inter-action among our members.
4. The Sabha should arrange a trip to Haridwar or Vrindavan for our members and their families.

Welcoming the suggestions, the President said all these suggestions would be put forth before all members to know their response and further suggestions, if any, and thereafter, we will proceed further for necessary action and programme. Bakshi to lead the Sabha on this journey as the Chief Guest. Col. R.N. Bakshi suggested that the Sabha can make a corpus for this trip and execute it further. Col. Aditya Datta mentioned that the Sabha must have a higher mission and Mohyals must rise up above excuses of paucity of time and money. Shri Virender Mohan suggested that it will be very efficient if a common meeting point can be decided for pick-up and a luxury bus can be utilised for this trip. Smt Anju Bali commented that this plan will be a refresher for all the members.

Shri Sanjeev Bali, Treasurer of the Sabha notified everyone present regarding his talks with the Bank Manager and the steps he wishes to take to update the records. Every member present appreciated his efforts and encouraged him.

Adv. K.D. Bakshi thanked members of the Sabha and members from the GMS (who wished to remain anonymous) for contributing towards medical expenses for his relative who underwent major surgery and was battling financial issues at hospital. He shared the news that he was out of danger and is on the safer side. He mentioned that a few other members had extended financial help, to which he had to say a 'NO' as the requirement had already been met with earlier donations.

All the members were served a welcome beverage with delicious snacks which everyone enjoyed to their hearts content. All enjoyed a hearty 'Delhi style' dessert and appreciated it.

All members present gathered near the lawn area of Scope Social Interaction Centre for the group photograph to be shared with the GMS for the benefit of the Sabha and the Mohyal community.

मोहयाल आश्रम में हमारे प्रवास के लिए हार्दिक अभार

हरिद्वार और ऋषिकेश की हमारी हाल की यात्रा अत्यंत यादगार एवं आध्यात्मिक अनुभवों से परिपूर्ण रही। मौसम सुहावना था और दोनों स्थानों पर पवित्र गंगा आरती में शामिल होने का सौभाग्य प्राप्त हुआ। मोहयाल आश्रम में हमारा प्रवास भी इस यात्रा का एक सुखद एवं आरामदायक हिस्सा रहा।

आश्रम की आकर्षक वास्तुकला, हरे–भरे परिसर और शांत वातावरण ने हमें प्रभावित किया। कमरे साफ–सुथरे, सुव्यवस्थित तथा आवश्यक सुविधाओं से युक्त थे। भोजन स्वादिष्ट, पौष्टिक और घर जैसा था। आश्रम के कर्मचारियों ने सदैव मुस्कान के साथ विनम्रतापूर्वक सेवा प्रदान की। सबसे विशेष बात यह है कि आश्रम में ठहरने, भोजन और अन्य सुविधाओं के कुल शुल्क भी अत्यंत उचित है, जिससे यहाँ ठहरना सुविधाजनक और किफायती बन जाता है।

आश्रम की पहली मंजिल पर स्थित सप्तऋषि मंदिर भी विशेष उल्लेख के योग्य हैं। यहाँ प्रतिष्ठित ऋषियों की पवित्र प्रतिमाएँ आध्यात्मिक प्रेरणा प्रदान करती है और मंदिर आश्रम की एक विशिष्ट पहचान है। हम श्री विनोद बक्शी जी के विशेष आभारी हैं, जिन्होंने हमें मोहयाल आश्रम में ठहरने का सुझाव दिया और हमारे प्रवास की अच्छी व्यवस्था सुनिश्चित करने के लिए प्रबंधन के साथ समन्वय किया। हम प्रबंध समिति, प्रबंधक महोदय तथा आश्रम के समस्त कर्मचारियों को उनके सहयोग, विनम्र व्यवहार और आतिथ्य के लिए हार्दिक धन्यवाद देते हैं। उनके सहयोग ने हमारी यात्रा को सफल बनाने में महत्वपूर्ण योगदान दिया।

भविष्य में हरिद्वार आने पर हम पुनः मोहयाल आश्रम में ठहरना पसंद करेंगे और अपने मित्रों एवं संबंधियों को भी यहाँ ठहरने की सलाह देंगे। आश्रम में बिताए गए समय के छायाचित्र और वीडियो हमारी यात्रा की अनमोल यादों के रूप में सदैव संजोकर रखे जाएंगे।

इस अवसर पर 11000 रुपए की राशि जीएमएस को लंगर फंड मोहयाल आश्रम हरिद्वार के लिए दान दी। लंगर तिथि 23 सितंबर।

सादर धन्यवाद एवं शुभकामनाओं सहित,
